

Text for Avoid Personal Injury

This is a message from the Florida Department of Health. After the storm, cleanup can be a very dangerous time. While making repairs, you can be seriously injured using power tools, climbing ladders and working on roofs. If you are not experienced using power tools, like chain saws, or comfortable using ladders or working at heights, ask for help from professionals. If you are going to make repairs, have someone help you and always pace yourself.